

List of all the files (arranged in alphabetical order)

Name of the file	Description findfolks.py	a compilation of all the use cases and queries to execute them averageRatings.html	a display of the average ratings for events hosted by groups a user belongs to createEvent.html	displays groups a user can create events for. there is an error message if user cannot create any events.
createEventForm.html	form to submit event information createGroup.html	displays form to submit group name and description for a new group createGroupSuccess.html	confirmation that a group was successfully created eventPosted.html	success page to show user their post has been successfully posted to an event page friendsEvent.html	displays list of events a user's friends are attending. if a user has no friends or none of their friends are attending any events, an error will display grantAccess.html	Displays a form to select a group from all the groups the user is an administrator of grantAccessMembers.html	Displays the list of all the members who don't already have authorization in the selected group grantAccessSuccess.html	Displays whether the selected member has been authorized successfully home.html	home page for a user once he/she is logged in. a directory for users to navigate through different actions Index.html	main display for findfolks, non-specific to any user. displays events happening in the next three days and groups that share one's interest interest.html	displays groups and their descriptions joinGroups.html	displays form to join a selected group. if user has joined all available groups or there are no groups, error message login.html	displays form for users to enter login information. error if login info is incorrect makeFriends.html	displays options for a user to choose who to be friends with. if there are no other users, error is thrown makeFriendsAuth.html	confirmation that a person has been added to a user's friends list populateBelongsTo.html	displays success message for users who have successfully been added to a group postInEvent.html	displays form for a user to post in an event page rateError.html	displays error for a user trying to rate an event that either has not happened yet or an event for which he/she has not signed up rateEvent.html	displays form for users to rate events between 0 and 5 register.html	displays form to register a user search.html	displays events that share a user's interests. gives user option to sign up for an event. throws error if there are no events that suit a user's interests submitRating.html	displays a success message for users who have successfully submitted a rating for an event upcomingEvents.html	displays events a user has signed up for the current day and for the following three days. gives user option to sign up for events